Founded in 2005 by their music director, the Richard Zielinski Singers have already established a reputation for artistic excellence. Consisting of 40 professional singers, the chorus inspires audiences with programs of contemporary American choral works as well as great choral classics.

Richard Zielinski has conducted orchestras and choruses throughout Europe, Asia, and North America and serves as Artistic Director and Principal Conductor of the Classical Music Festival in Eisenstadt, Austria.

Zielinski also serves as Director of Choral Activities and Chair of the Graduate Choral Studies at the School of Music, University of Oklahoma, Norman. Richard is the Interim Director of Adult Choirs at McFarlin Memorial United Methodist Church in Norman, Oklahoma. He also serves as Conductor of In Terra Pax, an international choral academy in Poland and is the editor of a Polish Music Series with Roger Dean Publishing. During his career, Zielinski has worked extensively with many of today's leading composers and conductors.
